

100% attractive

The Mullerthal Trail offers a variety of attractions which make each hike a unique experience:

Accommodation and gastronomy

Hiking on the Mullerthal Trail also means to discover the culinary and gastronomic highlights of the Mullerthal Region – Luxembourg's Little Switzerland. Numerous restaurants offer traditional meals made with excellent regional produce.

The French cuisine is quite present in the region. The good wines and the Luxembourgish Crémant make of each dish a gourmet meal.

The accommodation in the Mullerthal Region – Luxembourg's Little Switzerland ranges from modern youth hostels over camp sites and rustic pods and apartments to four and five-star hotels that offer a relaxing and enjoyable stay for every traveler.

Regional products made in the region are suitable for your lunch box or as souvenir. There is meat, cheese, confectionery, wine and liqueurs. Beautifully wrapped in a gift basket they make a pleasure for everyone.

Impressum:

Editor: ORT Mullerthal Region – Luxembourg's Little Switzerland
Photos: BoW/Thomas Bichler www.thomas-bichler.de, R. Clement, FrameArt, F. Kliem • Cartography: Digitale Kartographie Frank Ruppenthal GmbH, Karlsruhe • 09/2016

Regional Tourist Office Mullerthal Region – Luxembourg's Little Switzerland
B.P. 152 - L-6402 Echternach
Tel.: (+352) 72 04 57-1 - Fax: (+352) 72 75 24
www.mullerthal.lu - info@mullerthal.lu

www.mullerthal-trail.lu

MULLERTHAL TRAIL

112 KM TRAIL - 100% NATURE

GB

Hiking in the MULLERTHAL REGION LUXEMBOURG'S LITTLE SWITZERLAND

100% nature

The Mullerthal Trail takes you through the diverse landscapes of the Mullerthal Region – Luxembourg’s Little Switzerland – with its bizarre rock formations and extensive ancient forests, along mossy brooks, through narrow gorges and across plateaus offering fine views.

100% variety

Each of the three loops of the Mullerthal Trail has its specific character. Routes 1 and 2 pass through Echternach. This medieval town with its former Benedictine monastery is the cultural and tourist center of the region.

The typical landscape of Route 1 includes rocks, forests and grasslands.

Route 2, in the heart of Luxembourg’s Little Switzerland, takes the hiker to and through the most spectacular rock formations and Route 3 features romantic brooks, deep valleys and medieval castles.

© ORT Région Mullerthal – Petite Suisse Luxembourgeoise

Four ExtraTours and numerous local circuits, with manifold additional highlights, complete the offer.

Long distance or circular hikes can be undertaken from any starting point, according to interest and time. For detailed information and tips, visit www.mullerthal-trail.lu.

The Mullerthal Trail and the ExtraTours are signposted with the following route markers:

Mullerthal Trail

ExtraTours

Route	Length	Degree of difficulty*
Mullerthal Trail Route 1	38 km	average
Mullerthal Trail Route 2	37 km	difficult
Mullerthal Trail Route 3	37 km	average

100% quality

The Mullerthal Trail meets the quality standards of modern hikers, with its close-to-nature paths, beautiful views, natural attractions and continuously signposted tracks.

The European Ramblers’ Association was convinced by the quality of the path and granted it with the label “Leading Quality Trails - Best of Europe”.

In addition to the main trail, an extensive network of local hiking circuits invites you to explore the region along the Sûre, the Black Ernz and the White Ernz. Guided hikes can be booked.

Route	Length	Degree of difficulty*
Mullerthal Trail ExtraTour A	22 km	average
Mullerthal Trail ExtraTour B	13 km	average
Mullerthal Trail ExtraTour C	9 km	easy
Mullerthal Trail ExtraTour D	31,5 km	average

* based on the metres to climb